Hurricane Housing Recovery Program

The Hurricane Housing Recovery Program (HHRP) helps low-to moderate income homeowners recover from Hurricane Idalia. The HHRP has $1.267 million allocated to rebuild or rehabilitate homes impacted from the storm or to reimburse homeowners who have already completed repairs.

Homeowners Must:

1. Own the damaged home.
2. Have experienced damage to the home from Hurricane Idalia.
3. Use the home as their primary residence (Homestead).
4. Maintain a mortgage in good standing or be on a payment plan in good standing.
5. Be up to date on Property Taxes.
6. Have a household income at or below 120% of Levy County's area median income (AMI). See chart below.

Homeowners Can Apply For:

Disaster Assistance: Up to $15,000
(Must be for items in LHAP)

Owner Occupied Rehabilitation: Up to $30,000

Demolition / Reconstruction: Up to $170,000
